

Employee Referral Policy SL

February 2024

Purpose

This policy emphasises on rewarding the employees who help identify and refer competent talent in order to meet our resource requirements at an optimum cost.

Scope

This policy covers all employees of Mitra Innovation, except Functional Heads, HODs, HR team, and those involved in the recruitment process of the candidate or can influence the recruitment of the candidate.

Guidelines

Employees may refer individuals who fit the specifications given in job descriptions for the notified vacancies. The referred candidate will undergo the regular recruitment procedure as per the norms and selection will be considered only if he/she meets the requirements of the existing vacancy.

An employee's involvement is limited only to the submission of the resume and will not in any way try to influence the selection process or compensation finalisation of the candidate.

How to Refer

All referrals should come through via our Mitra Referral email (referrals@mitrai.com), this records a timestamp of all referrals.

The applied vacancy has to be mentioned in the Subject line for record purposes.

Referral Rewards

- Capped bonus of 50,000LKR, split into 2 payment stages.
 - The employee will be eligible to receive the first stage of the referral reward, when the referred candidate joins the company after going through the selection process and is successful in the interview process.
 - The employee will be eligible to receive the second stage of the referral reward, when the candidate completes the probationary period. (This may be delayed if referred employee has probation extended)

Rules and Regulation

- HR will notify vacancies available via email.
- Employees who have referred CVs will be informed of the success of their referrals via email
- The referral scheme is for permanent positions only.
- Candidates can only be referred against the verified vacancies. The candidate referred should strictly meet the criteria as per the vacancy notified.
- Employees referring to the candidate should obtain the candidate's consent before submitting the referral.
- Candidates who have already applied themselves or via a recruitment agency in the past one year from the date of notification of vacancy, will not be considered as a referred candidate.
- In the case of the same referral being received from multiple employees, date and time of the receipt will be considered and the first person to send will be eligible for the referral reward.
- Selection of ex-employees, who left the business, will not be considered as a referred candidate.
- Referred candidates should not have gone through the interview process with the company in the last twelve months for the same vacancy he/she has been referred for.
