

Mitra SL

Anti-Bribery & Corruption Policy

Overview	Mitra Innovation is committed to conducting all business in an honest and ethical manner. We take a zero-tolerance approach to bribery and corruption and are dedicated to acting professionally, fairly, and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships. This policy aligns with the principles outlined in the ANTI-CORRUPTION ACT, No. 9 OF 2023 of Sri Lanka. This policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment, and we may amend it at any time. It will be reviewed regularly.
Purpose	The purpose of this policy is to: • Ensure compliance with the ANTI-CORRUPTION ACT, No. 9 OF 2023. • Set out the responsibilities of Mitra Innovation and those working for or with us regarding observing and upholding our zero-tolerance stance on bribery and corruption. • Provide information and guidance to those working for us on how to recognize and deal with bribery and corruption issues.
Policy Measurement	100% adherence to the policy
Scope	This policy applies to all individuals working at all levels and tiers, including directors, officers, employees (whether permanent, probation or fixed term), independent consultants, contractors, interns, clients or any other person associated with us, or any of our subsidiaries or their employees, wherever located (collectively referred to as employees in this policy).
Responsibilities	Reporting Managers	Ensure that those reporting to them are made aware of and understand this policy and adhere to the same.
	Employees	Adhere to this policy and report any breaches or suspicious activities.
	HR Team	Ensuring all employees and associates are aware of and understand this policy and ensure adherence to the same. Keeping accurate records of all reported incidents and investigations ensuring disciplinary measures are consistent with company policies and laws. Acting as a contact point for reporting concerns about bribery and corruption. Protecting whistleblowers who report concerns from retaliation and maintaining their confidentiality.
What is bribery?	Bribe	Bribe means a financial or other inducement or reward for action which is illegal, unethical, a breach of trust or improper in any way. Bribes can take the form of money, gifts, loans, fees, hospitality, services, discounts, the award of a contract or any other advantage or benefit.

	Bribery	Bribery is defined as offering, promising, giving, accepting, or soliciting an advantage as an inducement for action which is illegal, unethical, or a breach of trust. All forms of bribery are strictly prohibited. If you are unsure about whether a particular act constitutes bribery, raise it with your manager, HR or Founder.
Prohibited Conduct	Employees must not: • Give or offer any payment, gift, hospitality, or other benefit in the expectation that a business advantage will be received in return, or to reward any business received. • Accept any offer from a third party that you know, or suspect is made with the expectation that we will provide a business advantage for them or anyone else. • Give or offer any payment (sometimes called a facilitation payment) to a government official in any country to facilitate or speed up a routine or necessary procedure. • [OTHER SPECIFIC PROHIBITIONS RELEVANT TO THE BUSINESS]. Referral payments made without a Referral agreement in place, signed by both parties. • Engage in any activity that might lead to a breach of this policy. You must not threaten or retaliate against another person who has refused to offer or accept a bribe or who has raised concerns about possible bribery or corruption.
Gifts and Hospitality	• This policy does not prohibit the giving or accepting of reasonable and appropriate hospitality for legitimate purposes such as building relationships, maintaining our image or reputation, or marketing our products and services. • A gift or hospitality will not be appropriate if it is unduly lavish or extravagant or could be seen as an inducement or reward for any preferential treatment (for example, during contractual negotiations). • Gifts must be of an appropriate type and value depending on the circumstances and taking account of the reason for the gift. Gifts must not include cash or cash equivalent (such as vouchers) or be given in secret. Gifts must be given in our company name, not any personal name. • Promotional gifts of low value may be given to or accepted from existing customers, suppliers and business partners.
Record-keeping	All accounts, invoices, and other records relating to dealings with third parties, including suppliers and customers, must be prepared with strict accuracy and completeness. Accounts must not be kept "off-book" to facilitate or conceal improper payments. All gifts, hospitality, or expenses incurred to third parties must be declared by email to slfinance@mitrai.com and recorded with the reasons aligning with the policy.

How to raise a concern	If you are offered a bribe, or are asked to make one, or if you suspect that any bribery, corruption or other breach of this policy has occurred or may occur, you must report it in accordance with our Whistleblowing Policy as soon as possible.
Consequences of Non-Compliance	Any employee who breaches this policy will face disciplinary action, which could result in dismissal for misconduct. Non-employees who breach this policy may have their contracts terminated with immediate effect.
Monitoring and Review	This policy will be reviewed regularly to ensure its effectiveness. HR is responsible for monitoring compliance and will update the policy as necessary.

Version Control/Approval

Version Number	Date	Prepared By	Approved By	Reason for New Release
V1.00	12-Aug-2024	Christina Kumar	Irosha Perera	Initial Release for Mitra SL