

Mitra SL

Attendance & Leave Policy

Scope	The purpose of this Leave & Attendance policy is to lay down comprehensive guidelines regarding availing and granting of all types of leave based on established standards of Mitra Innovation Private Limited, and its Associate companies. This will cover leave other than the fixed weekly holidays & statutory holidays or any other days declared by the Management of Mitra Innovation Private Limited, and its Associate companies.
Policy Measurement	100% adherence to the policy
Definitions	Company	Mitra Innovation Private Limited, and its Associate companies
	Employee/s	All full-time employees of the Company: • Probationary or confirmed. • Fixed Term Contract on full time basis. • Internship on full time basis
	Reporting line	Direct reporting / Immediate Supervisor could be functional / Project Manager.
	Year	A calendar year/ financial year (January to December)
	One leave	One working day for Mitra Innovation Private Limited
Responsibility	Head of Human Resources	Ensure effective implementation of this policy

	Employee	Leaves - All employees must apply for leave via PeopleHR within the stipulated timelines along with the approvals. Attendance - All employees must submit the timesheets via PeopleHR (Shared Services) or Persona (Cogs).
	HR Business Partner (HRBP)	To overlook the Leave/Attendance management system and ensure that there are no discrepancies.
	Direct Report	Verify & validate prior to approving / rejecting leave requests. Validate & take necessary action on the attendance

Guidelines

1 Leave entitlement

1.1 Full-time employees are granted leave in line with the Shop & Office Act & the Company policy with regard to granting of leave is as follows.

Annual Leave:

- For each calendar year (which means the period of January to December) during which an Employee has been in continuous employment, he is entitled to take in the following year, fourteen (14) days holiday on full pay. The leave must be taken on days mutually agreed upon by the project Manager/ Immediate supervisor; once agreed and approved this must be updated in PeopleHR.

Casual Leave:

- In addition to the annual leave entitlement, employees are entitled to seven (07) days casual leave for a calendar year for private business, ill-health or other reasonable cause.
- Note: During the first year of employment casual leave will be apportioned at the rate of half a day for every completed month of employment.

Lieu Leave

- Lieu Leave is meant to compensate for working extra hours during a mercantile holiday /weekend/non-working day.

Work from Home (WFH)

- WFH is not an entitlement and will be at the discretion of the Management based on the accepted circumstances.

Other Country Projects Deployment Leave

- Those Employees deployed in other country projects can only take public holidays relevant to that country, based on the agreement with the client.

Duty Leave

- Leave for official purposes (overseas visits, Training etc,) will be granted based on the requirement.

Discretionary leave

- This is granted for employees who are not entitled for leave & will be on the discretionary of the management.

Maternity leave

- The maternity leave entitlement for women will be 84 working days.

Paternity leave

- The paternity leave entitlement for fathers will be 2 working days.

Special Leave:

- Given in addition to their Annual & Casual Leave quota:
 - Time off - 01 day time off per month only for interns
 - Study Leave - 02 days granted only for Interns with the approval
 - Leave for Graduation - 01 Day
 - Leave to attend the death of an immediate family member* - upto 05 Days

If any of the entitled leave other than leave taken for medical purposes is not applied in advance the approving authority is entitled to know the reason for absence, when applying subsequently.

Authorized No Pay

- If an employee is not entitled to leave or does not have adequate leave; this is provided at the discretion of the management

1.2 Annual Leave

1.2.1 Entitlement

- An Employee would be entitled for 14 days of Annual leave per calendar year. New Employees who are in the first calendar year of service are not entitled for Annual leave. However, they would be entitled for following prorated Annual leave from the commencement of their 2nd calendar year.

Commencement of Employment Annual leave in 2nd calendar year

Between January 1st – March 31st 14 days

Between April 1st – June 30th 10 days

Between July 1st – September 30th 7 days

Between October 1st – December 31st 4 days

Employees are entitled for 14 days of annual leave from the 3rd calendar year onwards.

1.2.2 Conditions governing availment of Annual Leave

- Employees are required to utilize at least 05 annual leaves of their annual leave entitlement in one continuous block.
- Annual leave cannot be combined with casual leave.
- Employees will not be permitted to utilize less than 1 day of annual leave whilst having a casual leave quota.

1.2.3 Procedure

- Requests for Annual Leave must be made 02 months in advance with a covering person for the leave. Approval should be obtained from the supervisor/ project manager prior to availing the same. Segment Head/Practice Head/Immediate Supervisor may, depending on the circumstances, refuse to approve the Annual Leave if applied for subsequently. In such instances, employees may be granted leave however disciplinary action may be taken for availing leave without prior approval.
- It is the responsibility of all Segment Head / Project Managers to prepare an Annual Leave plan for their employees before the beginning of each calendar year and to ensure that the employee proceeds on Annual Leave as per the plan by reviewing it on a quarterly basis.
Note: this is a mandatory exercise as there will be no provision for carry forward leave for the following year.

1.2.4 Accumulation
i.	Annual leave not utilized in one year neither could either be carried forward to the following year, nor be encashed.
ii.	Prior approval from the COO must be obtained to carry forward the annual leaves to the following year. It must be utilized within the first quarter of the following year.
1.2.5 Annual leave on resignation or Termination of fixed term contract
i.	When an employee is leaving the Company and has an Annual Leave to his credit, the Practice Head/ Segment Head/Immediate supervisor, wherever possible, provided that the employee has provided sufficient notice, could make arrangements to grant the leave prior to the employee leaving the Company.
ii.	If an employee leaves after completing one year of service, he /she can utilize the remaining earned annual leave against the notice period.
iii.	If an employee leaves during the 1st year of service, the employee will not be entitled for any annual leave. Leaves earned for the following year will be encashed to the employee.
1.3 Casual leave
1.3.1 Eligibility
i.	For all Employees, the casual leave entitlement per calendar year is 7 working days. Casual leave not utilized in one year can-not be carried forward.
ii.	In the first year of employment casual leave is to be earned at the rate of half a day (½ day)for every completed one month of employment. The first year of employment means the period up to the end of December of that year.
1.3.2 Conditions governing when availing of Casual Leave
i.	Casual Leave will not be granted exceeding two days on any one occasion.
ii.	Casual leave cannot be combined with annual leave and should be taken at the rate of half/ one or two days at a time.
1.3.3 Procedure
i.	Casual Leave must be applied in advance, unless the reason for the absence is one which could not have been foreseen. In such an event the immediate supervisor should be kept informed before 9.00am & the leave should be approved verbally & leave should be regularized on return in PeopleHR.
1.3.4 Accumulation
i.	Accumulation of Casual Leave is not possible. Casual Leave not utilized in a particular year will lapse at the end of that year.

1.4 Lieu Leave
1.4.1 Eligibility
i.	The eligibility of lieu leaves is based on the number of hours covered as per the following guidelines: • If the person has worked continuously for 06 hours on a project during a Public Holiday/ weekend/ statutory holiday, is eligible for one day of lieu leave. • If the person has worked continuously for 04 hours on a project during a Public Holiday/ weekend/ statutory holiday, is eligible for a half day of lieu leave. • On special cases relating to extra hours of work, Lieu Leave can be allocated to an employee at the management's discretion (on pre-approval basis only) • To be eligible for this leave, an employee needs to request for Lieu leave within 7 days from the actual working date and should utilize the leave within 90 days from the actual working date.
1.4.2 Procedure
i.	PM or Supervisor must obtain pre-approval from the Segment Head and COO and share the approvals with BUHR informing that the team is to work during a weekend/public holiday/non-working day.
ii.	After the extra hours are completed team members must update their timesheets on Persona.
iii.	PM must request HR to allocate the Lieu Leave based on the dates the extra hours are logged in PeopleHR.
1.5 Hybrid Working
i.	Mitra encourages employees to physically come to the office in order to perform their job duties. WFH under accepted circumstances will be decided at the Management discretion and will be announced time to time via internal comms.
1.5.1 Procedure
i.	Employees should inform and obtain relevant approvals from Project Manager and immediate supervisor prior to applying working from home.
ii.	WFH requisitions should be lodged in PeopleHR by selecting the leave type as "Work From Home".
iii.	Project manager has the authority of approving/rejecting the WFH requisition based on project dependencies.
iv.	Employees are required to be physically present and work at the office premises for a minimum of two days per week.
v.	Working outside the country without prior approvals from the COO may result in HR intervention and disciplinary action.

1.6 Other Country Projects Deployment Leave Policy
i.	Employees deployed in other countries take public holidays relevant to that country. They have to work on Sri Lanka holidays, if it is not a public holiday of the country, they are deployed in.
1.7 Duty Leave
i.	Duty Leave will be granted in relation within the Company and in the following circumstances. - When the Company decides to send the employee on a course of studies, meetings, Company visits or training relevant and necessary to the sphere of work, the employee is engaged upon the recommendation of the Departmental Head and the information provided by the HR Division. - Overseas visits, Meetings & Training. - To attend to Disciplinary inquiries or any matter arising out of his duties or in his official capacity.
ii.	In the event overseas travel is recommended, the employee should obtain COO's, CEO's / MD's approval for the travel in order to provide with Duty leave.
1.7.1 Quantum
i.	The quantum of Duty Leave - Out of office for official purposes will be dependent on the requirements and be solely at the discretion of the Management.
1.8 Discretionary Leave
i.	If an employee is not entitled for leave or does not have adequate leave, he/she must reach out to his/her HRBP stating the case to request for leave.
ii.	Recommending unauthorized absence will be at the sole discretion of the COO and BUHR, depending on the nature of the requirement. At the point of recommending unauthorized absence, the COO has the option of deciding whether the absence is granted either as a "Paid" or "Unpaid", depending on a case-by-case basis.
iii.	The number of days approved may vary depending on the circumstances.
Note: Paid - Absence requests due to medical condition should be supported by a valid medical certificate; additional leave for such cases will be provided at the Management discretion in combination of employee's current leave entitlement (annual, casual, and lieu).

1.9 Maternity Leave
i.	All female Employees are entitled to fully paid maternity leave. Leave for the birth of the first (1st) and second (2nd) child, the female employee is entitled for a total of eighty-four (84) working days. In the computation of the 84 days, statutory holidays, Poya days and non-working days and weekly holidays are excluded from the calculation. Leave for birth of the third (3rd) and subsequent child or a dead child or viable fetus, the employee is entitled for a total of forty-two (42) working days. As per the Shop & Office Employees' Act, when calculating Maternity Leave, holidays under the Act (ie. Statutory Holidays, Poya days) should be excluded from the calculation.

ii.	Employees are entitled to Maternity Leave from the date of joining. This maternity leave will be paid on the basis of a combination of monthly basic salary plus monthly fixed allowances.
iii.	Maternity leave can be taken 14 days prior to the confinement date. Maternity leave could be combined with annual leave based on the approval of the Immediate Supervisor/ Practice Head/ Segment Head. The request to combine maternity leave & annual leave could be made before the confinement or towards the end of the maternity leave. However, the HR Department should be informed of the combination of leave via Immediate Supervisor/ Practice Head/ Segment Head, 15 working days prior to the expiry of Maternity Leave.
iv.	The request should consist of a covering person and the person covering for the applicant should be aware of all pending work assigned to the applicant.
v.	The application should reach HR via Immediate Supervisor/ Practice Head/ Segment Head, with a letter from the Gynecologist confirming the date of confinement along with the following supporting documents (E.g. Diagnosis Card)

2.0 Paternity leave

- The paternity leave entitlement for fathers will be 2 working days

2.1 Special Leave

i.	Other special leave with pay aims at providing flexibility to employees to attend the following requirements are as follows. A. Time off - 01 day time off per month only for interns B. Study Leave - 02 days granted only for Interns with the approval, Interns should provide necessary evidence for the leave such as Timetable or email from the university. C. Leave for Graduation - 01 Day D. Leave to attend the death of an immediate family member * - Up to 05 Days *The approval of such leaves is subject to provision of valid supporting documents where required and at the discretion of management (Immediate Family Member * - If Unmarried: Father/ Mother/ Sibling ; If Married - Spouse/ Child / Parent (s) - for In Laws/ Sibling, a Maximum of 05 days will be provided)
----	--

2.2 Authorized No Pay (ANP)

i.	If an employee is not entitled for leave or does not have adequate leave, he/she could apply leave under this category.
ii.	Recommending this leave will be at the sole discretion of the Supervisor/ Practice Head/ Segment Head and BU HR, depending on the nature of the requirement/context.
iii.	The number of days approved may vary depending on the circumstances. (This should not exceed 180 calendar days).
2.2.1 Procedure
i.	The request for authorized no pay should be made 03 months in advance mentioning the specific reason for request (e.g. travel, medical, personal, etc).

- ii. Employees must write to the BU HR Partner, and such request will be routed for further input from Immediate Supervisor, PM and Segment / Practice Head.
- iii. Upon receiving approval from the Segment/ Practice Head / Immediate Supervisor, the request will be routed to BU HR partner for Head of HR approval, where the facts pertaining to leave will be discussed.
- iv. The final approval on authorized no pay will be made by the COO, and the final decision will be communicated to the employee accordingly.
- v. Authorized No Pay (ANP) can only be requested by employees on permanent cadre. Employees who have obtained approval for authorized no pay, should be familiar with the terms & conditions specified in the ANP Agreement.

2.3 Medical Certificate

- i. The leave period recommended in the Medical Certificate should cover all working days, holidays and rest days fully within the period as a continuous period.
- ii. Where it is not possible to deliver such medical certificates by hand or if it is in outstation areas, it should scanned be sent via email to reach the Immediate supervisor, Project Manager, Practice Head, BU HR Partner not later than three (03) days for communicable diseases and within one week for prolonged illnesses & the original needs to be submitted on return to work.
- iii. In the event a medical certificate is not submitted within the stipulated timelines stated in clause 2.3 (ii) of the leave application, the approval panel has the right to reject the leave request and place the employee on unauthorized leave, indicating the reason for the rejection.
- iv. In the event a medical certificate is not submitted within 3 days of the date reported back to work, the medical leave will be rejected stating “non availability of supporting documents”.

3.0 General Business Hours

- i. The General Business Hours of the Company are from 09.00 am to 06.00 pm Monday through Friday within time flexibility from 08.30 am to 09.30 am. However, the Company reserves itself the right to extend and or revise and or alter hours and days of work, the intervals for meals and/or rest and time for commencement and cessation of work and intervals, at its discretion.
- ii. If an employee works on the General Business Hours (09.00 am to 06.00 pm), the work hours for a half-day's leave in the evening session (2nd session) would be 4.5 hours from the time an employee reports to work.
 - 1st Half: 9.00 AM to 1.30 PM
 - 2nd Half: 1.30 PM to 6.00 PM

3.1 Scanning In/Out

- i. Employees are required to mark in and out their time of attendance (either by using the figure print or swipe the company ID).
- ii. All employees are advised to scan 'in/out' in a correct manner & in the event the first attempt is not captured the subsequent attempts would capture the scan record. In the - event the subsequent attempts do not capture, the employee is required to inform the HR Division immediately of the inability to finger scan.

- iii. However, If the employee fails to regularize attendance within the said period for the days not scanned, scanning does not capture etc., he/she may be placed on unauthorized leave.
 - iv. If an employee fails to scan the out time when leaving office premises for the day, the last entrance that was scanned will be automatically taken as the time the employee left the office as the "out" time.

4.0 Reports and Alerts

4.1 Reports

- a) Reports based on employee's attendance could be generated to check the individual attendance and leave status.
- b) The days that the employee has not applied for leave or marked attendance would not be captured in the system.
- c) In the event in or out is not indicated in the individual time sheet, the employee is required to apply for leave from the system within 24 hours and forward an email with the approval of the Project Manager to the BU HR Partner.
- d) If an employee has not entered In and/or Out in the attendance system due to a special reason, the employee is required to send an email to BU HR Partner with his/her Supervisor/ Project Manager on copy.
- e) Monthly Attendance Report
Attendance reports generated will be emailed to the JTD copying the HR Team, once a month requesting for verification and to inform the employee concerned to inform about attendance status and regularize attendance as where necessary.

5.0 Late/Early Departure

- i. Due to various personal reasons special permission for late attendance or early departures can be considered. When special permission is granted by the Segment Head/Immediate superior, the employee can enter the permission as soon as he/she reports to work or prior to leaving the office.

5.1 Late Arrival

- Employees who commence work after 9:45 a.m. for more than 10 days a month will be placed on late and will be considered as habitual late attendance & warrants disciplinary action.
- The General Working Hours requirement of 09 hours per day commencing from 9.00 am (to be calculated based on flexi hours). There onwards late or early departure would be calculated.
Eg. An employee who clocks in at 10:30am will be considered as 01 hour late

6.0 General Terms & Conditions Pertaining to Leave & attendance

Leave

- i. All leave must be taken with prior approval. Provided due to unforeseen circumstances it is not possible to obtain such leave, inability to report to work should be notified to his supervisor prior to 9.00 a.m. either via email or telephone.

ii.	No employee while on leave should take up any employment or any vocation for profit or gain. If he does so, he shall be deemed to have resigned from service and he shall forfeit all privileges earned by him during his service except the legal benefits accruing to him under the law.
iii.	An employee who desires to extend his/her leave shall apply ahead of the expiry of leave so that a decision on the application may reach him/her before the expiry of the leave already granted. An employee desirous of extending.
iv.	his/her leave must ensure that the permission for extension of leave applied for is obtained by him/her. Failure to do so will be deemed to be unauthorized absence from duty and will be liable to disciplinary action.
v.	An employee who remains absent beyond the period of leave originally granted or subsequently extended, shall be deemed to have abandoned their service of the Company unless he/she reports for duty within 3 working days of the expiry of the leave granted and explained his/her overstay to the satisfaction of the Company. A letter will be sent to the employee inquiring reasons for absence.

Policy Input
Need to manage daily Leave & Attendance of employees to ensure uninterrupted operations of the Company.
Policy Output	Efficient leave & attendance management system
Policy Records	PeopleHR system records Medical reports Leave & Attendance management report

VERSION CONTROL

S. No	Ver No	Release Date	Prepared By	Approved By	Reasons for New Release
01	1.00	1-Jan-20	Duwaan Maheandran	Dananjaya Hettiarachchi	Initial Release - Updated Policy
02	1.01	20-Sep-22	Christina Kumar	Irosha Perera	Minor Changes - Updated Policy
03	1.02	7-Mar-24	Christina Kumar	Irosha Perera	Reworded the existing Policy
04	1.03	25-Jun-25	Christina Kumar	Irosha Perera	Logo updated, Annual Review