

Mitra SL

Gifts & Entertainment Policy

Scope	This policy enumerates the guidelines for employees when exchanging gifts and entertainment in order to develop goodwill and beneficial relationships
Policy measures	100% Adherence to the policy
Definitions	Company Mitra Innovation Private Limited and associate companies.
	Entertainment Includes the arrangement of activities, events, meals, refreshments or similar items for individuals or entities that have a business relationship or potential business relationship with the Company.
Responsibility	Managing Director Shall be responsible to take decisions in relation to the outcome of investigations relating to complaints, if any, under this policy, against employee who report to him directly.
	Head of HR and the HR team. Shall have overall responsibility for the effective implementation of this policy & Procedure.
Guidelines
1.1	Employees of the Company may receive or give appropriate business gifts as specified in this policy. However, the exchange of gifts and entertainment should be made within accepted limits and at any stage should not compromise or appear to compromise the ability of making business decisions in a fair and in an objective manner.
1.2	Exchange of gifts & entertainment should be made within limits as certain gifts and entertainment can create an improper influence.

1.3	Employees must not without the prior approval of the Management accept any gift or favor from any person with whom the Company has business dealings.
1.4	Any employee of the Company should ensure that they do not solicit or canvass any form of gift or entertainment for self or others, with anyone whom the Company may have a business dealing.
1.5	A gift or an entertainment could be accepted if the gift or entertainment offered is: • Modest • Acceptable and appropriate within reasonable business practices
1.6	To ascertain if any gift or entertainment offered is appropriate and consistent within reasonable business practices the following factors needs to be considered: • Intent – The gift or entertainment should be offered as courtesy and not to influence business decisions • Legality – Should be legal in the country of operation • Modest – The gift offered should be modest
1.7	Gifts
i	No gift item of cash or cash equivalent, such as gift certificates, shares, bonds, share options, payment of credit card charges or any other settlement of bills/debts of the employee should not be accepted as a gift. In the event any employee is offered any of the items/services specified herein, it should be refused politely and the immediate supervisor or the BU Head should be informed.
ii	Ensure that any business gift received is reasonably acceptable, appropriate within reasonable business practices, of a nominal cost and quantity & frequency. Items in the nature of diaries, calendars, pens offered as complimentary items, with value not exceeding GBP 50 will be considered as an acceptable business gift.
iii	Accepting gifts or entertainment within the above stated limit is not permissible.
iv	All employees of the Company should keep the immediate superior / BU Head informed of such gifts or entertainment prior to accepting.
v	Any business gift received exceeding the acceptable level should be informed to the immediate supervisor or the BU Head. Such gift needs to be recorded in the “Business Gifts Register” and will be considered as the property of the Company and be held in the custody of the respective Human Resources Department. These gifts may be donated to charity, or given away as a gift in a Company function as per the discretion of the management.

vi	Any gift or entertainment which is lavish in nature and would appear to influence a business decision or a transaction should immediately be refused and returned.
vii	Employees should never avoid their obligations in disclosing or seeking approval from the Management for any type of gifts or entertainment offered if not within the specified limits.
1.8	Entertainment
i	Entertainment offered as a business courtesy in form of lunch, dinner or cocktails is permissible if considered as good business practices and is not considered as a business inducement. It would be required for the receiver of the invitation to inform the immediate supervisor or BU Head and obtain prior permission
ii	Any entertainment offered in the form of a visit to the theater, cinema, or any recreational activity is not permissible or acceptable. In such instance the employee would be required to refuse politely and inform the immediate supervisor or the BU Head.
iii	Any inappropriate entertainment, adult entertainment, gambling or any entertainment which would reflect poorly on the Company will be strictly prohibited. The employee in receipt of such entertainment would be required to refuse the offer politely, and keep the immediate supervisor or the BU Head informed accordingly.
1.9	Travel
i	Air line, cruise ship or any other travel tickets, fully paid hotel accommodation is not permissible or acceptable. Any hotel accommodation provided by a customer/supplier for participating in a customer/supplier meeting needs to be approved by the BU Head and the Managing Director
ii	In the event an air ticket, hotel accommodation is offered complimentary as a result of providing business, such gifts may be accepted to be used as gifts in Company functions. Such gift needs to be recorded in the "Business Gifts Register" and will be considered as the property of Mitra Innovation Private Limited and be held by the Human Resources Department.
1.10	Any employee who reasonably believes that the Gifts & Entertainment policy has been violated; he/she could raise the concern with the aid of the Whistle Blowing Policy to the respective designated officer.
1.11	Any employee who is found guilty of violating this policy may be subjected to disciplinary action.
1.12	Refer annexure for acceptable gifts and entertainment.
Policy Input

2	The requirement to exchange gifts and entertainment in order to develop goodwill and beneficial relationships.
Policy Output	Exchange of gifts and entertainment which are acceptable as per company standards prescribed
Policy Records	NA
Policy Monitoring	Human Resource Audits conducted Bi-Annually Human Resource KPI monitoring conducted quarterly

Annexure – Acceptable & unacceptable gifts and entertainment

- 1) Diaries, calendars, pens offered as complimentary

Unacceptable gifts or entertainment

- 1) A gift of cash or cash equivalent
- 2) Gift certificates, loans, shares, bonds and share options
- 3) Any gift or entertainment that is illegal
- 4) Any inappropriate entertainment
- 5) Any gift that is offered in expectation of a favor of any kind

Note: This list is not exhaustive

Copyright © 2020 Mitra Innovation

VERSION CONTROL

S. No	Ver No	Release Date	Prepared By	Approve By	Reasons for New Release
1	1.0	01-Jan-20	Duwaan Maheandran	Dananjaya Hettiarachchi	Initial policy
2	1.1	12-Aug-2024	Christina Kumar	Irosha Perera	Annual Review

Copyright © 2020 Mitra Innovation