Guidelines
1	At every stage of the process the principles of our Equal Opportunities Policy should be adhered to so that no one is discriminated against because of their age, gender, transgender status, sexual orientation, marital or civil partnership status, colour, race, nationality, ethnic or national origins, religion or belief, pregnancy or maternity leave or trade union membership.
2	Any candidate with a disability will not be excluded unless it is clear that the candidate is unable to perform a duty that is intrinsic to the role, having taken into account reasonable adjustments. Reasonable adjustments to the recruitment process will be made to ensure that no applicant is disadvantaged because of a disability.
3	Any questions that are asked at an interview to job applicants should not in any way be discriminatory or unnecessarily intrusive. The interview will focus on the needs of the job and skills needed to perform it effectively. A record of every recruitment interview must be made and passed to the HR department to be retained for a suitable period of time. On no account should any job offer be made during or at the end of an interview.
4	It is Mitra's practice to seek the successful candidate's consent for it to seek two written references and to ask for documentary proof of qualifications and right to work in the Sri Lanka. Any offer of employment will be conditional on these being satisfactory.
5	Mitra processes personal data collected during the recruitment process in accordance with its data protection policy . In particular, data collected as part of the recruitment process is held securely and accessed by, and disclosed to, individuals only for the purposes of managing the recruitment exercise effectively to decide to whom to offer the job. Inappropriate access or disclosure of job applicant data constitutes a data breach and should be reported in accordance with the organisation's data protection policy immediately. It may also constitute a disciplinary offence, which will be dealt with under the organisation's disciplinary procedure .

6	Candidates assessed as eligible for recruitment shall sign an Employment Contract, in accordance with the Shop and Office act, as well as a Non-Disclosure Agreement protecting the company from breach of information disclosure as well as direct competition.
7	Referral of a successful candidate shall be rewarded in accordance with the Referral policy
8	Re-hire policy - A candidate shall be re-hired to the company according to the following policy - The candidate had performed his job well prior to leaving mitra (Assessed through previous PAR results) - The candidate left the job at Mitra with a positive impression - There is a vacancy to hire the candidate back - There is an approval from an authorized party to hire. PAR cycle - If the candidate joins within 6 months of resigning, they are eligible to the PAR cycle they were previously assigned to. However if the PAR cycle has already commenced, the candidate will be pushed to the next immediate PAR cycle. - If the candidate joins after 6 months since their resignation, they will fall to next year's PAR cycle according to the PAR cycle assignment based on the joining date. (Refer the Performance Management Policy) Salary and Designation - If the candidate joins within 6 months after resigning, they will be offered the same salary and designation as when they resigned - If the candidate joins after 6 months, the candidate may negotiate their new compensation and designation, however the candidate will be hired only after an evaluation is conducted to determine the skill and experience match for the new designation and salary.

Policy Input
1	Interviewer pool - shall be decided by the Practice Heads and maintained in a central document.
2	Hiring requests - shall be raised by Resource Management, in accordance with the RM policies.
Procedure
3.1	Hiring request is received by the TA team from the RM. The Hiring Request must be approved by an authorized person according to the RM process.
3.1.1	RM will consider internal resources as the first option and share profiles with the Hiring Manager. In the event the said resources are not selected, RM will inform the TA team to proceed with external hiring.
3.1.2	TA Team shall prepare the Job Description along with the RM.
3.1.3	The Job Advertisement will be published in various channels to attract the right candidate for the vacancy.
3.1.4	The applications received will be screened by HR and shortlisted. The HR will get the salary expectations of the candidates to identify whether the candidate's expectation matches the Mitra salary bands. The shortlisted batch will be sent to the practice representatives, assigned in the Interviewer Pool, and the batch will be shortlisted once more.
3.1.5	Shortlisted CVs shall be called for the first interviews.
3.1.6	Upon success at the 1st interview, the candidates will be called for the 2nd interview. Those rejected at the 1st interview shall be informed via email.
3.1.7	Upon success at the 2nd interview, candidates will be called for the final interview. Tier 4 and above candidates (T4, T3, T2) will have final interviews with the respective Practice Heads. Tier 1 and above candidates (T1, T0) will have the final interview with the Chief Operative Officer (COO) OR Chief Executive Officer (CEO).
3.1.8	Upon the success at the final interview, candidates will qualify to be hired if their salary expectations are within the defined salary bands.
3.1.9	Once the Salary is negotiated within the band, the candidate shall sign the Employment Contract and the Non-Disclosure agreement.
3.1.10	Once recruited, the TA team will hand over the candidates to the operations team to conduct the onboarding.
3.1.11	The standard Turnaround Time (TAT) for each hire are as mentioned below, Tier 5 & 4 - 30 Days Tier 3 & 2 - 60 Days Tier 1 and above - 90 Days
